INTERNATIONAL TURK

The Louisiana Lynching May Thus Result.

ON SECRETARY HAY

Called Count Vinchi, Italian Charge d'Affairs, and Presented Statements from the Consuls in the Pelican State.

Washington, July 22.—The lynching of the five Italians in Louisiana promises to assume an international aspect through the action of the Italian government. Count Vinchi, Italian charge d'affairs, has called at the state department and made representations to officials concerning the Louisiana affair. In order to get full information as a basis of action by this government, Secretary Hay thereupon telegraphed the governor of Louisiana requesting all facts in the case. Count Vinchi's action is predicated on reports the Italian consular officials of Louisiana and by press reports. There is reason to believe also that the Italian foreign office is already fully informed on the occurrence.

It is probable, however, the representations are only preliminary, with a view of calling attention to the facts reported and pave the way for any protest or demand for reparation, which may follow. The affair is considered in official Italian quarters much like that in the Mafia cases at New Orleans while Mr. Blaine was secretary of state, at which time the Italian minister, Baron Fava, called for passports and left the country. Baron Fava is now in Rome on a vacation and during his absence, Count Vinchi has charge of Italian affairs in this country.

Five Lynched Instead of Six.

New Orleans, July 22.—Further particulars have been received here of the lynching at Tallulah. There were five instead of six mobbed, and they were Sicilians and not Italians. The dead are: Joe DeFatta, Charles DeFatta, Frank DeFatta, Sy Deferech and Joe Cynero.

The five victims were strung up for supposed complicity in a plot to murder Dr. Hodges, a prominent physician of the place. In addition to this, several acts of lawlessness that have occurred in the neighborhood recently, were attributed to the gang.

The coroner's jury investigated the affair and returned a verdict that the men were killed by a mob. It is doubtful if action will be taken against any of the members of the mob.

Filed Declarations.

New Orleans, July 22.—A dispatch from Tallulah, La., says the five Italians who were lynched had been living in Madison parish some years and all filed declarations to become citizens. Some applied for naturalization papers.

Fields Executed.

Clinton, La., July 22.—John, alias Rabb Fields was executed in the parish jail Friday for the murder of Lee Hughes. Fields and his victim were negroes, and the crime was committed on the line of the Valley railroad, near Slaughter, about 18 months ago. The object of the murder was robbery. Fields met his fate with perfect coolness and professed he had received forgiveness for his sins. The execution was successfully performed, the condemned man's neck being broken and death practically instantaneous.

Trains Carrying Guards.

El Paso, Tex., July 22.—Reports said to be reliable have been current here for several weeks that members of Black Jack's gang have assembled in the mountains somewhere in this locality and were preparing to hold up a train. Not to be taken by surprise, all passenger trains on the Galveston and Harrisburg, the Southern Pacific and the Texas and Pacific railways, are now carrying armed guards.

Lost His Life For Another.

New York, July 22.—After a terrific struggle in the surf, "Jack" Hogan, a life saver at Fire Island beach, Fire Island, N. Y., lost his life in attempting to rescue Albert G. Hubert, a newspaper correspondent, from drowning. Howard Bayliss, of Cranford, N. J., almost lost his life while assisting Hogan. He, too, risked his life freely to save that of a stranger.

Lynched For an Assault.

Mexico, Mo., July 22.—Frank Embree, a negro, charged with assaulting 14-year-old Miss Dougherty, near Benton, Howard county, a few weeks ago, was taken from jail here today and while enroute to Fayette to be tried for his crime, was taken from the officers by a mob at Steinmetz and hanged to a tree. The negro denied his guilt.

Dewey Dined.

Trieste, July 22.—A dinner was given by Minister Harris to Dewey and the officers of the Olympia to meet the American consuls to Austria and Hungary Friday night. Mr. Harris formally invited the admiral to be his guest for a few days at Vienna and be presented to Emperor Francis Joseph at Bishel, and go with him to Tryol.

In an Awful Muddle.

Austin, July 22.—It now develops that fakirs have not only been selling lists of summer normal examination questions, but some have even prepared lists of their own and sold them to teachers at from $20 to $50 per set. The examinations are in an awful muddle and it will take some time to straighten them out.

ATTACHES ASTONISHED.

Mexican Embassy Officials Do Not Understand Issuance of Judgment.

Washington, July 22.—Attaches of the Mexican embassy in this city were astonished to read that an attachment had been served on J. P. Morgan & Co., to secure payment for what are known as the old Woodhouse Mexican bonds. The Mexican ambassador is out of the city, but one of the secretaries stated that he had never been able to understand how a judgment could have been issued against the Mexican government in favor of John G. Hassard, for more than $3,000,000 worth of bonds illegally issued, and he was equally puzzled to know the process of law by which an attachment was served upon the new Mexican bonds for which J. P. Morgan & Co., are negotiating.

Embassy officials don't seem to fear that their government will ever be called upon to pay Mr. Hassard's claim. The Mexican government repudiated the bonds when the attempt was first made to issue them and the Mexican minister published a card at the time cautioning the public "that no contract of any kind or any bonds purporting to be concluded or issued in this country in behalf of Mexico are or can over be considered valid and binding on the Mexican republic unless they be approved by its minister accredited near the government of the United States."

The United States government has often been called upon for assistance in collecting claims of American citizens holding these bonds, but official correspondence shows that the state department has always considered the bonds invalid, and has never called upon the Mexican government to pay any of them. Should the attachment against J. P. Morgan & Co. hold good and result in any securities belonging to the Mexican government being turned over to the party holding the judgment, a correspondent was told at the Mexican embassy, a claim would probably be filed by the Mexican government against the United States to recover the securities.

Father Killed by His Son.

Birmingham, Ala., July 22.—Frank Suzie, a Portuguese, was shot and mortally wounded at Carbon Hill Thursday by his 10-year-old son, George. The father had just returned home from serving a sentence in the penitentiary for assault and was on a drinking bout. His 7-year-old stepdaughter offended him and he threatened to kill and wipe out the whole family. The son interposed an objection and the father rushed at him angrily with a carving knife. The boy picked up a pistol and shot his father as he approached. He then surrendered.

Late Richmond Tragedy.

Richmond, Tex., July 22.—Walter Burton, and his daughter, Hatty, the surviving participants in Wednesday's shooting, waived examination and were released on $5000 bond each. The girl was in jail, but the old man was too badly injured to be locked up. Burton is getting along very well, considering the nature of his wound, and while the woman's face presents a frightful appearance and many bones are shattered, she has not even murmured at her dreadful suffering.

Washingtonian's Windfall.

Washington, July 22.—Edward Wright has at last virtually secured the fortune which his aunt, an English lady, left at her death. The estate is valued at $5,000,000, while the valuation of the family jewels is placed at $500,000. Two uncles share with Mr. Wright this great legacy. Wright's real name is Don Raza. His father was a Spaniard. He was adopted by Rev. E. Purden Wright, an Episcopal minister, formerly of this city, now archdeacon of the diocese of Milwaukee, whose name he took.

Mrs. Witherspoon Badly Hurt.

Denton, Tex., July 22.—Mrs. C. F. Witherspoon, the wife of a prominent citizen here, was thrown from her horse 11 miles north of town and severely injured. The horse became frightened and ran away, throwing her to the ground, dislocating her right leg, breaking one of the bones in her right ankle, cutting her about the head and bruising her considerably.

Hotly Pursued.

Birmingham, Ala., July 22.—Jesse Bryant, the negro who committed a criminal assault on Mrs. Hannah, at Lineville, Clay county, is being hotly pursued by a posse of citizens. At one time they had him surrounded in a swamp, but a hail storm came up and in the confusion attendant upon it he escaped.

BRAZOS NAVIGATION.

Address to the People in Regard to the Convention.

Brenham, Texas, July 21.—The committee appointed yesterday to publish an address with reference to holding the Brazos river navigation convention have prepared the following:

Delegates to the Brazos River Navigation to have been held in Brenham July 3: With keen regrets the citizens of Brenham having in charge the Brazos river navigation convention announce to you, and through you to the people of Texas, the further postponement of the convention from July 27 to a future time, to be fixed by the executive committee after consultation with the delegates. This action is taken after much anxious study over the situation. Had the convention been held on July 3 there is no question of the success of the movement in point of numbers, personnel, and in zeal and influence. The response to the call for the convention was hearty and general. Every county in the Brazos valley from McLennan to the gulf had appointed delegates of representative citizens. Both Senators Chilton and Culberson, Governors Sayers and Browning, Congressmen Ball, Henry, Hawley, Burleson, Slayden, Burk, DeGraf, Fenried and Kleburg had promised attendance and others had promised support. Railway Commissioners Mayfield and Story had promised attendance and co operation. Judge Reagan, while unable to attend, had written his fullest sympathy and support. This sympathetic response indicated the desire of the business interests to have this waterway open to cheap and easy transportation to the sea of the products of the great Brazos valley. The immediate necessity for water competition with railway transportation was recognized and agreed on. The floods have come and on June 30 the committee, recognizing the impossibility of having the convention on July 3, postponed it to July 27, resting under the belief that this time would be sufficient to restore all the effects of the overflow. Instead, extraordinary and appalling disaster has overtaken and overcome the great Brazos valley, and its raging, unrestrained waters have swept away to the sea millions of dollars, the fruit of years of labor, leaving desolation and sorrow and almost despair, in its wake. To repair this damage has absorbed every energy of the planters of the Brazos valley, who formed the great body of delegates to the convention and are the ones immediately interested in this movement. Citizens of Brenham have lost with you and sympathize with you in this hour of affliction. These adverse conditions call for delay until calmer thought prevails, and that energies now required at home can be turned again to this great object of utilizing our rivers as means of transportation. Engineering skill has practically demonstrated in the northern United States and in Europe that rivers far interior to the Brazos or the Trinity can be utilized for transportation. The floods are not without benefit if they serve to call attention of the people of the United States to the great wealth producing lands still uncultivated along the river, estimated to be 70 per cent, and the further pressing necessity of federal aid to assist in diminishing in some way the effect of overflows. Do not fail, delegates, to attend the deferred convention. Do not let disaster or postponement dull your zeal in the accomplishment of this great movement of opening the Brazos, and with it other rivers of Texas, to stock water navigation. Communicate at once with D. C. Giddings, Jr., chairman arrangement committee, giving your views and suggestions. Brenham has made every arrangement to receive and entertain you. Expecting and desiring your presence at the convention we are, yours respectfully,

B. BRYAN,
B. ELDRIDGE,

FOR A COTTON MILL.

A Proposition from a Rhode Island Man to Locate a Mill In Bryan.

The following letter was received by Mr. J. A. Myers from Waco, submitting a proposition from a Rhode Island man to locate a cotton mill at some good point.

Waco Texas, July 21st. 1899.
Mr. J. A. Myers:

Dear Sir:—I have an offer from a reliable party owning a 5000 spindle Cotton Mill now located in Rhode Island. The machinery is good and capable of making standard cloths equal to any in the market, he wishes to find a suitable location to place the mill, and as I am acquainted with the party he wrote me a letter naming a proposition which parties here who have been investigating about cotton mills and they pronounce it the most reasonable offer and if the plant was a 10,000 spindles I would not have to look any further for a location. The machinery is in excellent condition and can manufacture equally as good fabric as now in the market. He offers the following liberal proposition to any first class small town located in the cotton belt, and as I considered your town among one of the best for the location of the mill I decided it would do no harm to submit the proposition to your people; He will agree to equip and complete a Cotton Mill of 5000 Spindles with all machinery, with 150 H. P. Engine and boiler, All line shafts belting and electrical apparatus for lighting purposes. A fine Brick Mill Building 50 x 200 ft Two stories. For the building of this mill as described above he wants sufficient grounds free for the mill site, he also wants free sufficient water for steam and other purposes, and he wants the citizens of your town to take $45,000 of the stock and organize a first class company the balance of the money to complete the mill will be furnished by the party building the mill and furnishing the machinery. This 5000 spindle mill will employ from 125 to 175 hands. And what ever city this mill is located it will positively be a bonanza for the place. The enclosed circular of the Meadowbrook mill shows this mill guarantees its stockholder's 20 per cent, and it will positively pay this dividend. The cotton mills in Georgia, South and North Carolina are paying from 25 to 35 per cent. Why cannot mills pay equally as well in Texas. The Meadowbrook mill was operated for years in Pennsylvania and at last it was forced to locate in the cotton fields. They are now building near Houston. Please notice the cost of their plant of 10,000 spindles. If your city procures this mill it will positively induce other industries to follow, and by increasing the Tin bucket brigade it means prosperity. Trusting to hear from you promptly, and if I can be of any service to give you more information please let me know. Yours very truly,
THOS. T. FARMER.
2209 Washington St.

There is no use in attempting to dodge a practical issue. Texas needs factories to supply the actual demands and necessities of her people, but if they ever attempt them it must be through the honest, untiring, united effort of her capitalists, supported by the full and free co-operation of her people—the consumers. It is an admitted fact that nothing the soil grows can be produced more cheaply than in Texas, and nowhere is labor more productive, yet Texas is content to send her cotton and wool and hides and all her raw products to distant states to be manufactured and sent back here to be purchased at a big advance on the original price. Such a condition of affairs ought not to be permitted to continue longer. There is money in factories. Why not have them?—Brenham Banner.

Pharmacy as a Science

A late number of a Pharmaceutical journal contains an advertisement of a large manufacturing drug house stating that they had rejected over 50,000 lbs of two certain, valuable drugs within the past 12 months, on the cogent ground of inertness, apropos they ask the question. What became of them? As a matter of course such drugs are sold to the jobbers who keep them in stock for the "close buying" retail druggist to whom as a general rule, all druggists alike. I desire to impress the fact that I buy only the best grade of drugs and being familiar with their characteristics and structure, I can to a great extent judge a good drug from a bad one. It is here that Pharmacy is akin to a science and where the skill of a druggist is of real value to a community. You will find our

JAMES P. WILSON.

Death of an Honored Citizen and Octogenarian.

As briefly announced in the last issue of The Eagle, Mr. James P. Wilson died at his home in this city yesterday morning at 1 o'clock at the advanced age of 80 years and 5 months.

Mr. Wilson was born in Barron county, Ky., February 22, 1819. He was educated at a preparatory school and was a classmate of the S. B. Maxey. In 1856 at Fulton, Tenn., Mr. Wilson was married to Miss Celestia Hawkins. He came to Texas in October 1861, locating at Ft. Worth and remaining there until the end of the war. In October 1866 he moved to Bryan and has since made his home here. He was engaged in mercantile pursuits before and after coming to Texas and was in business here for twenty-five years, first as a wholesale grocer and subsequently in the hardware line.

Mr. Wilson leaves a wife and four children, the latter being Mr. J. P. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. J. W. Barton of Dallas, Mr. Sam B. Wilson and Miss Blanche Wilson of Bryan.

Mr. Wilson was a member of the Christian church from his youth and active all his long life in church work. He was distinguished among his fellowmen for high moral character, refinement, exemplary conduct, charity to those in need and all manly virtues. He enjoyed universal respect among those who knew him and was widely known in Texas and Kentucky.

At the family home at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon the funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. D. Wilson, and Judge Ford, a friend of Mr. Wilson for fifty years, delivered an eulogy on his character. His death was as peaceful as his life had been, and marked by that infinitely sweet repose that "takes the sting of death away and robs the grave of victory."

NINE MORE NURSES.

They Will Arrive From San Francisco for the Philippines.

New York, July 22.—The 6 o'clock through train on the New York Central line Thursday night for San Francisco, carried nine more trained nurses for the Philippines, sent out under the auspices of the auxiliary No. 3 for the maintenance of trained nurses. Following is the list: Miss Duensing, Miss Barbara Zeigler, Miss Mary M. Sumner, Miss Helen Frazer, Miss Katherine Yeakel, Miss Amy Pope, Miss Carlotta Marshall, Miss Lydia E. Cookley, Miss Mary Murray. These nurses are sent in response to an appeal for more nurses cabled last Saturday from Manila to Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, chairman of the committee on the maintenance of trained nurses, to which auxiliary No. 3 turned over the care of closing up its work.

Adjutant General Corbin, as soon as advised of the appeal, informed Mrs. Reid that the secretary of war would send instructions to San Francisco to forward the nurses at once on army transports on the same lines as formerly, that they begin work immediately for any sick soldiers on the transports during the voyage. He also suggested that, with a view to making this service as successful as possible, it would be desirable to divide them into two detachments, and send to the Philippines. Miss Duensing was placed in charge of one party of five and Miss Frazer in charge of the remaining four, and in accordance with the adjutant general's directions they are instructed to report immediately to Major General Shafter in San Francisco on their arrival.

NO PARTICULARS.

Race War at Lake Village Believed to Be Serious.

Little Rock, July 22.—Just what has transpired at Lake Village is not yet definitely known here. Reports are in circulation of a race war, but so far these reports have not been positively confirmed.

A special from Pine Bluff says all efforts of telegraph companies to reach Lake Village have proved ineffectual, and they are confident that the negroes have cut the wires outside of the town in several places, and newspaper correspondents, linemen and others left there for the scene of the trouble, believing that a full-grown riot was in progress, but it is impossible at this time to obtain definite information.

There was a rumor abroad that a negro was lynched Thursday night, but there are no near's of corroborating the report.

No Use for Reporters.

London, Ky., July 22.—Carl Daly, a newspaper correspondent, is back from Manchester, where Sheriff White knocked him down and ordered him out of town. Another correspondent was fired on and ordered out of town. An outbreak is expected at any time. The county officials charge that the newspapers have exaggerated the situation and both sides are suspicious of strangers so that the correspondents were promptly ordered away. Mr. Griffin is still unable to appear for trial as a participant in the fight a week ago when three were killed, two fatally and five seriously wounded.

PRESIDENT WORRIED

So Much Talk Against Otis Has Stirred the President and It Is Believed He Will Act Before Hostilities Are Resumed.

Washington, July 22.—The complaint issued by the newspaper correspondents at Manila, despite the studied effort of the administration to ignore it, has made a serious impression throughout the country, and it is almost sure that when the rainy season ends in the Philippines and the campaign is renewed, General Otis will be restricted to discharging the administrative functions of governor general, while another army officer, probably Lawton, will be in command of the field operations.

The sentiments reaching the president by word or mouth, by telegram, by letter and from army officers of discretion who are writing privately to their friends in the service here complaining of Otis' vacillation, lack of decision and apparent inability to grasp the full military situation, are having influence.

The criticisms of returning volunteers are perhaps the most potential influence operating on the presidential mind.

These men have relatives and friends, and they talk. They may not be able to explain the technical reasons which influenced the general to capture territory and give it up to be reconquered subsequently, or to keep the volunteers at the firing line while reserving the regulars for a home guard.

They merely disapprove of Otis as incompetent and say so, and when asked why they did not reenlist, being also offered a bounty of $450 to do so they would not reenlist with him in command.

Several of the writers have suggested that Otis was hurried, driven almost to distraction by fool instructions from Washington. This has reached the president's ears and whether or not true, he does not like the imputation.

The general opinion is that the correspondents would not have made such a charge unless they knew it represented the sentiment of a majority of the officers and men in Luzon.

The volunteer regiment of cavalry authorized Friday and the chartering of seven transports are indications that the administration has concluded that further trifling in the Philippines must be stopped.

The war department has issued a statement quoting certain dispatches from General Otis in answer to the press correspondents' kick.

The general says in substance that the correspondents wish to send statements that imperil operations, and that they had no specification to support their charges against him. He denies that he minimizes the work of the navy and quotes from naval dispatches to justify his statement.

The text of the statement is as follows: "General Otis in a dispatch under date of July 20 says that the press correspondents demanded permission to cable that official reports misrepresented conditions. This was denied. They then demand the privilege to send without reservation facts found by them and their opinion. This was granted if public interests were not imperiled. The answer was not satisfactory and they therefore sent by mail to Hoboken, N. J., General Otis says he is not conscious of sending misrepresentations, but thinks that his dispatches at times have been too conservative. The press affair appeared to be a threat. When correspondents were asked to be informed wherein General Otis' dispatches were misleading they offered tangible exceptions that his conclusions were unwarranted. When told that they were disregarding military authority it was apparent that they court martyrdom, which it was unwise to give them."

In a later dispatch General Otis says that charges made by the correspondents are untrue. He adds that most harmonious relations exist between the army and navy.

Otis' Account.

Washington July 20.—The war department has received the following cablegram from General Otis: "Captain B. A. Byrne of the Sixth infantry, with 20 men surprised the united robber bands of Negros, numbering 450, killing 15, wounded many; captured a few rifles and revolvers and many hand weapons, large quantity of stock. The fighting was at close distance. Byrne's loss was one killed and one wounded; names not given. This action is very beneficial to quiet the Negros."

Gave Detectives the Slip.

Vancouver, B. C., July 22.—The alleged defaulter, Moore, who is wanted on the charge of embezzlement of $50,000 from the Bank of Commerce at Boston, slipped away on a boat to the Klondike, eluding the detectives who were watching for him here.

Coming to See Them.

New York, July 22.—A dispatch from London says that Sir Thomas Lipton has chartered an 8000-ton steamer and intends to take 600 guests to America to see the American cup race.

Overcome by Heat.

Brenham, Tex., July 22.—H. Krueger while at work on a roof of a 2-story building was overcome by heat and now lies in a critical condition.

ROOT APPOINTED.

He Is Tendered and Has Accepted the Secretaryship of War Portfolio.

Washington, July 22.—Elihu Root of New York has been tendered and accepted the secretaryship of war. A telegram of acceptance was received while Secretary Long was with the president. Secretary Alger had just left.

The tender of the war portfolio was made to Mr. Root Friday night after a conference at the White House.

As the president leaves for the Adirondacks Wednesday or Thursday of next week, it is hardly probable that Mr. Root will come to Washington to confer with him before that time. It is regarded as more likely that Mr. Root will meet the president at Lake Champlain the latter part of the week.

PRACTICALLY OVER.

Time Schedules Virtually Restored on the Street Car Lines.

New York, July 22.—The street railway strike in Brooklyn is a thing of the past. The time schedules of the various railroads have been practically restored and maintained through the city and suburbs. Aside from greased rails and an occasional explosion of a torpedo placed on the tracks by a sympathizer who hope to frighten the new motor-men nothing hindered the general operation of the roads during Friday night. While overt acts are no longer apprehended, the police are not yet withdrawn from the cars on the lines passing through the neighborhoods where interference might occur.

It is now generally believed the bullet which penetrated Detective Foster's leg came from the revolver of Detective Crane, who accompanied him. Only one shot was heard and Crane fired that. John Condon and Paul Boyne, who were arrested at the time for striking a motor-man, will be given an examination, charged with being suspicious persons.

About 2 o'clock a car on the Rockway Avenue line started from the Adams street police station with 13 policemen in charge of Sergeant Dillon for Canarasi to relieve the force that had been on duty there. When the car reached Dumont Avenue it ran off a "blind" switch and upset, throwing all on board down the steep embankment. Seven policemen were cut and bruised quite severely. The ambulance surgeon was called and their injuries patched up. The mishap was accidental.

The street railway strike of Manhattan borough is practically at an end. Cars are running on regular schedules and there are no longer any disturbances. About 20 men, who struck, but who are known to have taken no part in violent demonstrations have returned to work.

COLLEGIATE SPORTS.

Some of the Winners in the English Inter-University Contests.

London, July 22.—The hot spell was temporarily broken by a heavy fall of rain, followed by a somewhat gloomy morning, causing much apprehension for the interuniversity sports. At noon, however, the sun was again shining and the heat tropical. The Gates Queens club grounds were thrown open at 2:15 p. m., to crowds that had already surrounded the entrances.

AN ALABAMA COMPANY.

Organization Was Effected Under the Laws of New Jersey.

Baltimore, July 22.—Richard H. Edmonds has returned from New York, where he assisted in the organization of the Alabama Consolidated Coal and Iron company. Speaking of the new enterprise Mr. Edmonds said:

"The company was organized under a New Jersey charter. The capital is $5,000,000, of which it is said $2,500,000 cumulative, 7 per cent preferred stock and $2,500,000 common stock. T. G. Rush will be president and John E. Searles vice president."

Situation Worse.

London, Ky., July 22.—Trouble is feared at any time between the warring factions at Manchester. Sol Griffin's house was riddled with bullets, but no one hurt, as the family hugged the floor.

For Strike Duty.

Cleveland, July 22.—Four companies of the Fifth regiment of the Ohio national guard, were called out by Mayor Farley for strike duty. The companies have assembled at their armories.

LEAGUERS' BIG DAY.

Thousands Listen to a Great Number of Addresses.

Indianapolis, July 22.—Today was the big day of the Epworth League convention. Every minute of the time was occupied by the regular sessions and committee meetings, beginning with the three sunrise prayer meetings. The registration bureau closed last Friday night, at which time thousands of rivals had not been noted, but it is conceded that 14,000 visitors thronged the city Saturday. The junior league meetings were held at Roberts park and the Meridian Methodist church this morning.

The regular convention sessions began at 9 o'clock. Bishop Ninde of Detroit, presided in the tent, Bishop Galloway of Jackson, Miss., presided in Tomlinson hall and Bishop Hurst of Washington, presided at the opera house. The same topics, spoken upon at the three meetings were: "Methodism, its Evangelical Genius," discussed by Rev. W. A. Spencer of Philadelphia, Rev. Claudius B. Spencer of Denver, and Rev.
